

the medical center hour

Medicine & Society in Conversation

A program of the Center for Health Humanities and Ethics
University of Virginia School of Medicine

Wednesday, 10 March 2021

12:00-1:00 pm

A Zoom Webinar: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87684988960> Passcode: 763749

Zula Mae Baber Bice Memorial Lecture, School of Nursing

ANCHORED IN NURSING: A LIFE IN LEADERSHIP

Rebecca W. Rimel BSN MBA

Former President and Chief Executive Officer (1994-2020),
Senior Advisor, and Emeritus Trustee, The Pew Charitable Trusts

Pam Cipriano PhD RN NEA-BC FAAN

Sadie Heath Cabaniss Professor and Dean, School of Nursing, UVA

Marcia Day Childress PhD, moderator

In this Bice Memorial Lecture, Rebecca Rimel looks back on a life in leadership—in her case, serving 26 years as president and CEO of The Pew Charitable Trusts, an innovative and influential public charity involved in health and human services, the arts, public opinion research, and environmental, public health, and national economic policy. Ms. Rimel's service at Pew was anchored in nursing, built upon an exemplary career in healthcare and on what she learned and practiced as a nurse at UVA—management under pressure, clear communication, purpose and motivation, empathy and caring.

Co-presented with the School of Nursing

Suggested resources:

1. Cocke W. Gift honors Rebecca W. Rimel, establishes new dean's chair. UVA School of Nursing, 14 Sept 2020 <https://www.nursing.virginia.edu/news/rimel-dean-chair/>
2. The Pew Charitable Trusts. <https://www.pewtrusts.org/en/>

Ms. Rimel and Dean Cipriano declared no personal/professional relationships with commercial entities producing healthcare goods and/or services related to this presentation. Medical Center Hour planning group members M.D. Childress PhD; R.J. Bonnie LLB; R. Carpenter DrNP; J.F. Childress PhD; M.F. Marshall PhD; J. Mutter MD MA; K. Reid PhD RN FNP-C CNL; L. Shepherd JD have no personal/professional relationships with commercial entities producing healthcare goods and/or services, while R. Dillingham MD MPH reports interests with Gilead and Warm Health Technology Inc. UVA Office of Continuing Medical Education faculty and staff have no personal/professional financial relationships with commercial entities producing healthcare goods and/or services.

Rebecca W. Rimel BSN MBA is a graduate of the University of Virginia (BSN, with distinction) and James Madison University (MBA). Now senior advisor and an emeritus trustee of The Pew Charitable Trusts, she joined Pew in 1983 as a health program manager, became executive director five years later, then served as president and chief executive officer of The Pew Charitable Trusts from 1994 to 2020. Prior to joining Pew, Ms. Rimel had an exemplary career in healthcare at UVA. She was the first nurse to hold a faculty position in the UVA School of Medicine, serving as an assistant professor in the Department of Neurosurgery. She was head nurse of the emergency department at the University of Virginia Hospital. She authored numerous scientific articles on head injury. Among her awards are the Distinguished Nursing Alumni Award from UVA and also the UVA Women's Center's Distinguished Alumni Award. She also received a Kellogg National Fellowship, a four-year professional enrichment opportunity for emerging leaders. Ms. Rimel serves on the board of directors for Becton, Dickinson and Co; DWS Mutual Funds; and Bridgespan. She is a fellow of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia and a member of both the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society, along with its prestigious Wistar Association.

In September 2020, UVA School of Nursing announced a $5 million gift from The Pew Charitable Trusts to create the Rebecca W. Rimel Dean's Chair in the school. This gift endowing the deanship honors Ms. Rimel's transformative leadership of the Pew organization and reflects her longtime commitment—as a nurse and as a foundation executive—to improving the health of the public.

Next Medical Center Hour: Wednesday, 17 March 2021, 12:00-1:00 pm

History of the Health Sciences Lecture

THE TOPOGRAPHY OF WELLNESS:

HOW HEALTH AND DISEASE HAVE SHAPED THE AMERICAN LANDSCAPE

with Sara Jensen Carr PhD ASLA, Assistant Professor of Architecture, Northeastern University, Boston MA, and Timothy Beatley PhD, Teresa Heinz Professor of Sustainable Communities, Department of Urban and Environmental Planning, School of Architecture, UVA
Co-presented with Historical Collections, Claude Moore Health Sciences Library

ACCESS this Zoom webinar at: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87684988960> Passcode: 763749

Medical Center Hour is free of charge and open to the public.

For more information, see Center for Health Humanities and Ethics:

<https://med.virginia.edu/biomedical-ethics/medical-center-hour/>

Watch Medical Center Hour recordings at <http://www.youtube.com/uvamch>

How to Claim Continuing Education (CE) Credit for Medical Center Hour:

Using the Google Chrome or Firefox browser on a phone, tablet, or computer, go to <https://cmetracker.net/UVA> and log into your CE account with your email and password. Choose 'CE Certificate-Eval for Credit,' enter Activity Code 140401, then complete and submit your evaluation. You have 30 days from this program date (10 March 2021) to evaluate and obtain credit for this program. This is the only way you can receive credit for this Medical Center Hour.

In support of improving patient care, the University of Virginia School of Medicine and School of Nursing is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team. This activity was planned by and for the healthcare team, and learners will receive 1 Interprofessional Continuing Education (IPCE) credit/session for learning and change.

Learning objectives:

1. Review a career in leadership of a public charity that began in healthcare.
2. Consider the core skills of nursing and how these capabilities, well-practiced, might translate across disciplines and qualify one for leadership.