ACROSS

3. Swallowing ____ products will not prevent a cold, the flu, or COVID-19, and could make you sick.
4. Pouring a household product into a ____ bottle is dangerous because someone might drink it by mistake.
6. The liquid inside a ____ stick can irritate your eyes or skin.
8. Children can easily get into suitcases and purses, so give ____ a safe place to store theirs.
12. An adult beverage that should be kept away from children.
14. A sweet treat that is poisonous to dogs.
15. Always read this before taking or giving over-the-counter medicine.
16. A plant that is poisonous to cats.
19. It is dangerous to take this in the dark—you could make a mistake!
20. Fireplaces, outdoor grills, and power generators are all sources of carbon monoxide (CO), a poisonous ____.
21. Blue Ridge Poison Center calls are answered by people with this job training.
22. The cost for calling the Blue Ridge Poison Center on a holiday.

DOWN

1. Poison control centers help keep people out of this healthcare place.
2. A holiday plant with poisonous berries.
5. Poisoning can happen to anyone of any ____.
7. Do this to your hands before cooking to help prevent food poisoning.
9. Tiny disc-shaped types of these—found inside some toys—can cause burns if swallowed.
10. Pills might look like this to a child.
11. Vape liquids may contain this chemical which is dangerous to swallow.
13. Another word for taking too much medicine.
17. Some toys made in China might contain this toxic metal.
18. Essential oils, like oil of wintergreen, could make you sick if you do this with them.
Answers