

Organization (A – Z)	Program Title/Description	Notes
National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) for Teens  (a.k.a. teens.drugabuse.gov)	Cannabis: The Facts You Need to Know	Adaptable for grades 6-12. Included interactive computer program.
NOVA (PBS Learning Media)	The Cannabis Question	Series of documentary-style videos with accompanying teacher support materials. Note: contains images of young people using cannabis which might not be suitable for all audiences.
Stanford Medicine	Smart Talk: Cannabis Prevention and Awareness Curriculum	Lessons divided into elementary, middle, and high school grades. Uses Canva slides that can be customized. Includes teacher/parent information.
Virginia Cannabis Control Authority	Talk About Cannabis: for Teens	Information about forms of cannabis, health effects, current laws, and refusal skills.
Virginia Department of Education: Health Smart Virginia	https://healthsmartva.org/	Sample lesson plans which are approved to meet the Health Education Standards of Learning (SOL) for grades K-10.
Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth	Unfazed	A YouTube video series targeting teens to prevent vaping and cannabis use. Designed by The Rescue Agency.