

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The landscape of therapies and diagnostic tools for the management of neurological diseases continues to evolve. How to incorporate new therapies and diagnostic tools into clinical practice is a challenge faced by all neurologists. Our symposium will provide neurologists, nurses, and all members of the health care team the opportunity to update their clinical practice and learn more effective and equitable ways to evaluate, diagnose, treat, and support their patients with neurological conditions.

DESIRED OUTCOMES

At the conclusion of this event, participants should be able to:

- Identify barriers that lead to healthcare inequity that may exacerbate regional health care disparities both in the United States and in central Virginia
- Recognize implicit bias in their own perceptions and practices
- Incorporate DEI best practices into neurology practice
- Be aware of the different tools of teleneurology and ways to implement into practice
- Use evidence-based recommendations and new treatment options to for patients with Alzheimer's Disease
- Identify Functional Neurological Disorders in adults and children
