

The Generalist Scholars Program (GSP) Presents:

Primary Care Week

September 10 – 13 & 19, 2018

Monday, September 10

12:00—1:00 PM

MEB 3rd Floor Auditorium

Providing Health Care in Prisons and Jails

Come learn about health care delivery in incarcerated settings and the unique health challenges that exist behind bars. Dr. P. Preston Reynolds (Internal Medicine), Dr. Bruce Cohen (Psychiatry), and Dr. Denise Young (OB/GYN) will be sharing their experiences working at regional correctional facilities.

Mellow Mushroom pizza provided

Tuesday, September 11

12:00—1:00 PM

MEB 3rd Floor Auditorium

Women's Health Care in Family Medicine

Dr. Karen Maughan is a family medicine physician at UVA who is a champion of women's health and obstetrics in primary care. Come learn about this exciting niche within general practice.

Sign-up required—see link in email (also sent out in email by Wanda Hudson)

Food Provided

Tuesday, September 11

5:30—8:00 PM

HSL FCM Rooms

Family Medicine Clinical Skills Workshop

Explore the diversity of procedures and skills found in primary care. We will be practicing splinting, punch biopsy and suturing, vaginal delivery technique, and BATHE mental health technique with Family Medicine residents. Stations subject to change.

Sign-up required—see link in email

Food provided

Thursday, September 13

12:00 – 1:00 PM

MEB 3rd Floor Auditorium

Popular Diets: Nutrition-Proficient Primary Care

Primary care physicians are uniquely positioned to help patients make lifestyle changes and improve their long-term health. This can be challenging work, especially when it comes to advising on popular diets. Randy Bird, Registered Dietitian and UVA Head Sports Nutritionist, will review this topic to help prepare us for productive discussions on dietary changes.

Take It Away sandwiches provided

Wednesday, September 19

12:00 – 1:00 PM

Pinn Conf. Center Auditorium

Medical Center Hour

Your Heart is the Size of Your Fist: Caring for Refugees and Immigrants

Dr. Martina Scholtens, a Family Medicine physician practicing in Vancouver, BC, will reflect on her ten years of experience working in a refugee clinic.

Apples provided