

Ob-Gyn Residency Questions and Answers

Pre-Interview Release Communication Preferences

1. This program only reviews applications from applicants who have signaled.-- Yes
2. The program requests any updates to the application after the application deadline (9/25/2025) but before interview offers are released (10/28/2025) be communicated by emailing OBGYNRESIDENCY@uvahealth.org

Post-Interview Release Communication Preferences

3. After interview offers have been made, the program requests that faculty, medical school officials, and other proxies DO NOT contact the program to solicit additional interviews.
4. The program requests that any updates to the applications after interviews are released (10/28/2025) be communicated by emailing OBGYNRESIDENCY@uvahealth.org

Post-Interview Communication Preferences

5. The program does not expect applicants send thank-you emails or letters to the program, residents, or interviewers.
6. The program WILL accept or review additional communication from faculty/medical school officials/proxies after interviews are complete.
7. This program will only communicate with applicants to answer questions about the program and will not respond to other communication from the applicants.-- No
8. The program offers “second looks” visits.-- No the program does not offer “second look visits. The institution typically hosts an event in February where applicants can opt to attend in person to learn more about UVA and the Charlottesville area. Programs are only able to participate in the institutional event after the rank list has been certified.
9. If offered, “second looks” will only be offered after the program certifies its rank list.-- Yes
10. The program accepts Letters of Intent (LOIs) from applicants.-- Yes

For any questions about the residency program, please contact OBGYNRESIDENCY@uvahealth.org