Program Overview

Target Audience

- Healthcare Providers
- Researchers

Program Topics Overview

- ENT Research
- Disease Management
 - Cutaneous Malignancies
 - Vestibular Disease
 - Non-Flaccid Paralysis
- Challenging Cases
 - Laryngology
 - Neurotology/Otology
- Procedural Techniques
 - Laryngology
 - Neurotology/Otology
- Medical Organization Performance & Design
- Artificial Intelligence in Medicine
- Physician Financial Management & Investment

Desired Outcomes

The Fitz-Hugh Symposium strives to provide the highest quality didactic lectures and educational experience to healthcare providers within the field of Otolaryngology. Each year, the symposium is given a specific focus which allows for a more comprehensive lecture series and in-depth conversations for the challenging case panels.

This year, for the 48th Annual Fitz-Hugh Symposium, the focus is Neurotology/Otology and business in medicine. At the completion of the symposium, participants should be well informed on:

- The most current research within the field of ENT and specifically at UVA
- How to perform procedural techniques for
 - Laryngology exams
 - Otology/Neurotology exams
 - Advanced Otologic exams

At the completion of the symposium, participants should be able to understand and appreciate:

- The identification, treatment, and management of: Cutaneous malignancies, vestibular disease, and non-flaccid paralysis
- The complexities and considerations when approaching challenging clinical and surgical cases
- The importance of the organization design in relation to performance in medicine
- The role that artificial intelligence has, and may in the future have, in medicine
- The importance of financial planning and investment for physicians

The 48th Annual Fitz-Hugh Symposium

Accommodations

The 48th Annual Fitz-Hugh Symposium is shaping up to be a wonderful in person gathering at the recently renovated and internationally acclaimed Boar's Head Resort on Thursday, June 20, and Friday, June 21. This year's symposium will start off with research presentation from our residents followed by several lectures and panels taking place all day Thursday and Friday at the Boar's Head Pavilion. Friday evening ends the symposium with our annual banquet to celebrate our graduating residents.

A room block has been reserved at the Boar's Head Resort at a discounted rate and will be available through Monday, May 20th. To make a reservation online, you can click here or you can call Boar's Head Reservations directly at (844) 611-8066 and use group code 9308. If you need to book outside of our conference dates, please call Boar's Head Resort.

The 48th Annual Fitz-Hugh Symposium

Symposium Location and Parking

The Fitz-Hugh Symposium will take place inside of the main Pavilion at Boar's Head Resort. The Pavilion (see image below) is located directly across from the resort hotel and is located at 860 Boar's Head Dr, Charlottesville, VA 22903.

This map (click to access) provides an overview of the Boar's Head Resort grounds. The Pavilion where the symposium is taking place is marked as designation number 11. The best area for free parking is located in the two open parking areas just above building 22 near the lower lake.

Name tags and symposium information will be available in the foyer to the right upon entering the Pavilion. The symposium lectures will take place in Pavilion room 1, lunch and breaks will take place in Pavilion room 2, and exhibitor tables will be set up inside the main corridor that connects the two Pavilion rooms.
