US News & World Report Ranks UVA Neonatology 8 Years Running

For the 8th year in a row, the Neonatology program at UVA was included in the list of the Top 50 programs. This year, we were ranked #36 in the nation.

Read more

Using Vital Signs to Help Predict Outcomes

We are at the forefront of using predictive monitoring. Earlier detection of infections is key to preventing life-changing or life-limiting complications.

Read more
Pain Control & Reducing Opioid Use

In order to assure adequate pain control but minimize opioid use in our post-surgical NICU, we implemented a quality improvement project to reduce post-operative opioids in surgical patients.

Read more

Pandemic Impacts & Lessons Learned

How we utilized the pandemic to shed light on the impact of COVID-19 on family visitation in the NICU.

Read more

Want to learn more? Catch up on recent publications.